Mr. Lett's report centered chiefly about Urban League activities in connection with the Negro Business Survey and the Vocational Survey. There had been a communication from Washington outlining a survey to determine the number of white collar workers. A conference with Mr. Ross of Columbia University who had conceded the value of the Vocational Survey about to be conducted in New Jersey.

There are three camps for transients in New Jersey. While not many Negroes fall into this class and are hardly a problem, they are so considered. However, the authorities have not committed themselves on the question.

Miss Simkin's case load stands at 88, 20 having been closed within the month.

The Executive Secretary announced an important conference --New Jersey Conference Social Work in Asbury Park, Dec.

8th -8th.

It was the consensus of opinion that Mr. Lett should attend it. It has been suggested that the group working under Dr. Hill for the Welfare Federation go into permanent organization. This group reported 36% of its quota at the first meeting.

There was a lengthy discussion concerning the possibility of serving luncheons to Warren Street school children again this year. At present, sufficient funds are not available.

Announcement was made of a meeting to be held at Union Congregational Church in Upper Montclair, November 25th. The Urban League was requested to have charge of a table at this time displaying Negro literature.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. A. H. Ormond, Pres.

U. M. Janifer, Secretary.
